Sir,

I have the honor to state that one Subbarayan, Archak of the Mookambigaha of the Sri Narasimha Swamy Temple on the hill at Devarayanadurga in the Chickanayakanhalli Taluk, petitioned to the Amildar of

of that Taluk - that Archak Narasimhaiya of the Wootsava Vigraha There of vowed to contribute towards the expenses of Karthika and Dhanurmasa Seras in the Temple out of the income of the Inam Lands he was enjoying, & his late uncle Archak Appanniya was doing and prayed that in case Narasimhaiya did not meet the payment of the said contribution, the Inam lands he was enjoying may be given over to him (Petitioner) for enjoyment.

On enquiry, it is ascertained that the temple in question is on the Baragihalli Hill wherein is installed the Moolavigraha of the deity, the Wootsava vigraha being kept at Nandana here, a village 4 miles away from the hill. Each of these vig has its own Inam lands as shown in the margin and its own Archak to worship it. The Archak of the Maalavigraha is the petitioner Subbaiya, that of the Vootsava vigraha being Narasimhaiya. Each Archak enjoys the Inam lands endowed to the vigraha he worships. The Vootsava vigrah a has no temple at Handanakere, but it had been kept there for about 30 years in the Sri Harihareswara Swami Temple. About 3 years ago, Narasimhaiya had it removed to his own house and has been now worshipping it there. This procedure is unauthorized. The Assistant Commissioner, Gubbi Sub-Division, proposes that the current years income from the Inam lands which Narasimhaiya is enjoying, may be withheld and the same credited to the funds of the institution, the Vigraha being ordered at the same time to be kept in the Sri Hariharesvara Temple as before.

With regard to the contribution which Narasimhaiya is said to have ceased to pay to the temple, there is no evidence to show that it was ever paid by the petitioners late uncle Arehalli Shamanniya.
